Story about this quilt:	I joined a wall hanging sew along group on Facebook in 2021? The group was organized by a pattern designer and I am unable to find her name or the name of her business or the pattern name of this quilt. The sew along was a yearlong and each month a new pattern came out. The only pattern I made was the February heart block in a unique color palette.

Story about this quilt: Fall is my favorite season and Fall colors are my favorite palette. Saw this fabric and imagined a quilt for my husband's chair. Sewed strips of the jelly roll pieces together into strip sets and then cut diamonds. Added ¼ inch border and six-inch border. Nice addition to Fall quilts.

Who Quilted this? I quilted it with leaves/circles in main body of quilt and outlined flowers in border

Project Name: Hospice Quilt
Size of Project: 56 inches square
Story about this quilt: What to do with some odd, ugly flower layer cake fabric? Cut it up! Used a disappearing nine-patch: cut the layer cake into charm size, sewed a nine-patch, cut, sewed again, cut again. The ugly fabric became cute, 4 ¼" blocks! Quilt will be donated to Hopewell House.

Who Quilted this? I quilted it with circles

Fabric Designer or Line A Kim Cause Collection—by Maywood Studios supporting cancer research. Maywood Studios supports cancer research by donating a percentage of the proceeds from specific fabric collections to organizations like the American Cancer Society. These collections, sometimes named “Kim's Cause” or other fundraising initiatives, allow customers to contribute to research and awareness through their fabric purchases.

Project Name: Walk in the Park
Size of Project: 47” X 53”
Story about this quilt: This was my first jelly roll quilt to do. I purchased it at the auction. I wanted something simple and easy to do. My goal was to use all the jelly roll fabric and I did it!

Book or Pattern Inspiration Kit
Project Name: Degrees of Truth
Size of Project: 62” by 73”
Story about this quilt: This is my first flannel quilt. I bought the kit in 2022 from the Stitchin’ Post. To prevent the squares from raveling, I zig zagged all the edges before sewing the pieces together.
